

Strongsville Meeting.

The right spirit is up in Strongsville. The meeting last Saturday was well attended, and we are informed, ably addressed by Messrs. Merwin and Starkweather. The coons got considerably Poked up. One of the "old 'uns" swore that the Plain Dealer had forged all the late letters of Henry Clay on Texas, and that Webster's speech was got up by us! This is the dernier resort of whiggery. The coons have got to go it blind, and lie their way through to the election. Their case is pitiable.
