

SHERIFF'S SALE—In obedience to the command of a writ of Feiri Facias, issued out of the Court of common Pleas in and for the county of Cuyahoga and state of Ohio, and to me directed and delivered, in favor of the said state, against Brigham Brown and Daniel Whitney, I have levied upon the lands and tenements hereinafter mentioned and shall sell at public auction, on Saturday, the third day of March next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the court house in said county, all the estate, right, title and interest, which the said Daniel Whitney had of, in and to the same, on the tenth day of October, last, to wit:

All that certain lot of land in the township of Strongsville in said county, known as lot number Ten being the North-East corner lot in said township, and is bounded on the north by Middleburgh township, and on the East by the township of Royalton, containing one hundred acres, conveyed to the said Daniel Whitney by Samuel Porter and his wife, by Deed recorded in book K, of Deeds in the records of said county, on page 423; and also all that certain other piece of land which was conveyed to said Daniel Whitney by Ebenezer Pomeroy and his wife by Deed recorded in book K, aforesaid, on page 424, being part of lot number 53, in the township of Strongsville aforesaid, and described in said deed as beginning at a stake and stones on the north line of Abraham Conynes' land, three rods from the centre of the turnpike road, thence south 85 degrees, east twelve rods six links, to the wash-bank, thence north 19 deg. east six rods ten links—thence north 85 deg. west 16 rods and 19 links to the centre of said road—thence south 5 deg. west 5 rods 5 links—thence south 85 deg., east 3 rods to the first bound containing 83 rods more or less. And, also, all that certain other piece of land which was conveyed to said Daniel Whitney by William Wait and his wife, by deed recorded in book L of Deeds in the records of said county, page 427, being one acre of land, part of lot No. 57, in the township of Strongsville, aforesaid, and described in said deed as bounded on the east on the centre of the Turnpike road, and is to be in a square form, taken from the south east corner of land deeded to Wm. Wait by Ward Woodbridge. And, also, all that certain other parcel of land in Strongsville aforesaid, which was conveyed by Rowland R. Barber and his wife, to said Daniel Whitney, by deed recorded in book M of deeds, in said county, page 632, being part of lot No. 9, in said township, bounded in said deed as follows: beginning at the north east corner of said lot, thence west on the north line of said lot, 24 chains to the north west corner of said lot—thence south 20 chains 37½ links to a stake—thence east 24 chains to a stake on the east line of said lot—thence north 20 chains 37½ links to the place of beginning, containing 48 78-100 acres of land, be the same more or less. And, also, all that certain other parcel of land situate in Strongsville aforesaid, which was conveyed by Ward Woodbridge to the said Daniel Whitney by deed recorded in book M of deeds, in said county, on pages 634 and 635 of said book, described in said deed as follows: Seventy two acres 93-100 of land, more or less, excepting 12 acres and 101 rods, deeded to R. C. Wetherley in 1830, referring to Baldwin's survey in 1816, being the west part of lot No. 73, lying in the township of Strongsville, aforesaid, bounded as follows, viz. north by lot No. 72, east by a part of the same lot, the line to run parallel with the west line of said lot, south by lot No. 74, west by lot No. 88.

For a more particular description of all the said parcels of land, reference is hereby made to the records of the several deeds herein before mentioned, in the Recorder's office of said county—the last mentioned lot of land will be sold subject to a mortgage of one hundred dollars given by said Whitney to the state of Ohio, on the 27th of June last, and interest on the same.
