

OHIO LEGISLATURE.

A GOOD MANY BILLS ARE RUSHED THROUGH,

And a Halt Is Taken in Honor of Indiana.

Special to the LEADER.

Senate.

COLUMBUS, May 23.—The Senate met at 10 o'clock. Prayer by the Rev. T. P. Abell.

Mr. Curtiss presented two petitions from Cuyahoga county, one signed by seventy-three citizens, asking for the passage of the anti-scalpers' bill, and another from eighty-three citizens, protesting against the passage of the same.

Other petitions were presented from Muskingum, Belmont, Hamilton, Montgomery and Seneca counties, protesting against the passage of the above bill.

The following bills were then read the third time and passed:

Mr. Carpenter's House bill providing for the building of a Children's Home in Meigs county.

Mr. Dunham's House bill authorizing the transfer of funds in Special School District No. 3, in Woodville township, Sandusky county.

Mr. Ellis' House bill authorizing the trustees of Strongsville township, Cuyahoga county, to levy a tax and build a Town Hall.
