

CHANCERY SALE—By virtue of a decreta order to me directed by the court of common pleas of Cuyahoga county, and State of Ohio, I shall expose to sale at public auction on the 23d day of September next, at 2 o'clock P. M. at the Court House in the city of Cleveland, in said county, the following described lands and tenements, to wit: lot No. 1 in the township of Strongsville, in said county, bounded north by lot No. 2, west by lot No. 20, south and east by the lines of the said township of Strongsville, being the same lot articulated to Moses O. Bennett by John S. Strong, the 10th day of July 1817: containing 97½ acres of land, excepting and reserving therefrom 1½ acres from the south-east corner of said lot, being south of diagonal road, leading from a road one mile north of the south line of said township. And also 20 acres off from the north-west corner of said lot, bounded north and west by lot lines, being 80 rods north and south, and 40 east and west, be the same more or less, subject to all legal highways; appraised at $2,280.

The above property will be sold to satisfy a decree in Chancery in favor of Thomas P. May vs. Moses O. Bennett.

JAMES A. BRIGGS,
Master in Chancery.

Cleveland, August 21, 1839.
