

Death of Danforth S. Lyon.

Danforth S. Lyon died December 20th of consumption at his home in Strongsville, aged seventy-two years lacking less than a month. The deceased was born in Stafford, Connecticut, January 18th, 1807. He removed with his father, Liakin Lyon, to Strongsville in 1818, at the age of eleven years. The place was settled two years earlier. The present homestead has been occupied as such by the family for about fifty-five years. Mr. Lyon was the eldest of eleven children. Two brothers, Mr. S. S. Lyon, of Cleveland, and Mr. C. C. Lyon, of Banner, Wisconsin, and two sisters, Mrs. Seth A. Abbey and Mrs. L. F. Burgess, of this city, survive him. The deceased was identified with the prosperity and enterprises of the place and filled many important offices. He was a staunch Democrat and was for years a prominent member of the County Central Committee. Mr. Lyon was a man of nobility of character, of excellent judgment and commanded the respect of those who knew him. He was an upright man, a good citizen.

