

INDEPENDENCE.

Believing that the Declaration of July 4, 1776, which led to the redemption of three millions of people from British thralldom, cannot be more appropriately commemorated than by exertions to rescue three millions of the present generation from bondage ten times more intolerable, the undersigned respectfully invite the friends of UNIVERSAL LIBERTY, in Cuyahoga county, to meet at Cleveland, on the FOURTH OF JULY next, to assist in organizing a County Anti-Slavery Society. Addresses, &c. may be expected.

R. Stone,
H. A. Sharp,
L. Sterling.
L. A. Moody,
A. Brainerd,
Willoughby.

Wells Porter,
Joseph H. Payne,
Nehemiah Porter,
Joseph Stocking,
David Ingersoll.
L. L. Adams,
Asher Cooley,
Nathan Bassett,
Stephen Smith,

Dover.

John S. Hudson,
Abiel Haynes,
Elijah Lyman,
L. W. Strong,

Strongsville.

A. D. Smith,
James S. Clarke,
Thomas Jones,
J. A. Foote,
A. B. Brown,
A. H. Lewis,
S. J. Andrews,
L. L. Rice,
M. H. Hickox,
David Long,

Cleveland.

W. T. Huntington,
George Manchester,
J. F. Tainter,
Wm. Thompson,

Brooklyn.

Wm. Adams,
H. Coit,
Asa Cady,
M. S. McIlrath,

Euclid.

It is proposed to organize at the Stone Church at 11 o'clock A. M. for business; and at 2 o'clock an adjourned meeting will be held, when addresses will be delivered.

Cleveland, June 23, 1837.