

Killed.

Special Dispatch to the LEADER.

BEREA, October 14.—Marion E. Stone, Esq., an old and respected citizen of Strongsville, was killed by his horse running away this morning at about 10 o'clock. He was about seventy-three years of age, and had lived in Strongsville for over sixty years. It has cast a shadow of sorrow over the whole township.