

Mercer County Court

(Juvenile Session)

December 16, 1927.

Commonwealth of Kentucky,      Plaintiff

-v-      Judgement

Ben Skinner,      Defendant

The defendant Ben Skinner having been before the Court on September 9th., 1927, charged with stealing corn from the farm of J.L.Tobin in Mercer County, Ky./ The Court withheld its decision of this matter and put the defendant on probation with his father. It now appearing that the Defendant Ben Skinner will not stay with his father and is unmanageble , it is therefore ordered that said Ben Skinner be and he is hereby committed to the School of Reform, at Greendale, Ky., during his minority.

Ordered Court Adjourn.

A copy attest:-

Ben C.Allin, J.M.C.C.