

killing last night?
made that remark several times on the way to jail.

Ans Mr Mason came to my house last night- it was about a quarter to 9 o'clock. I went to the door, and he said that Tom Turner had killed Butch McCoun. I asked him where, and he said down
*****

Dr _____ Thomas; Examined by Mr Corn-at Turner's house. I says- is he dead- and he says- Yes, and I have put Turner in jail and I have his pistol here. I says-

1- You are a physician, I believe?
Ans Yes sir.

2- You practice here in Harrodsburg?
Ans Yes sir.

3- Were you called upon to examine the body of Butch McCoun last night.

Ans No, I was not called. I heard of the occurrence and I went down there.

4- Did you make an examination.

Ans I looked over the body.

5- Where was the ~~xxxxx~~ shot?

Ans He was shot just about an inch, or three-quarters of an inch from the nipple (left)

6- How did the bullet range?

Ans- I didn't examine that.

7- I will ask you whether or not that wound caused his death?

Ans In my opinion it did.

8- Was it a fatal wound?

Ans Seems to have been.

9- You don't know anything of the actual occurrence?

Ans No sir.

Ans Yes.

5- You are chief of police of Harrodsburg?

Ans Yes.

K.C Smith, Examined by Mr Conr-

6- You have known Butch a long time.

1- Just state to the jury any information you have of this