

DEATHS

STONE

George T. Stone, 69, died Friday night April 3, 1936, at 6:30 o'clock at his home on the Bloomfield road near the city limits. His death, due to pneumonia, came on the evening of the day on which his wife's funeral services were held, she having died Tuesday night from the same cause.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Andrews Catholic church, Harrodsburg, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Clarence Meyers.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Ed Roberts and Miss Virginia Stone, and a son, Mr. Thomas Stone, of Harrodsburg, and five grandchildren.

He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Mary Thomas, Lexington; four brothers, William Stone, Mercer county; Fred and James Stone, Jessamine county, and Frank Stone, Henry county.

The same pallbearers acted for Mr. Stone that had served at the funeral of his wife. They were Dr. J. Herman Allen, Wallace Adams, Andrew McFarridge, Sylvester Cox, John Keller, and H. P. Dowling.

TURPIN

Mrs. Mollie Turpin, 74, widow of the late George Turpin, died at her home in Louisville Sunday, April 5, 1936. Mrs. Turpin resided at High Bridge for many years and the body was brought to the Union church in that village Tuesday afternoon, where funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock with burial in the Westminster cemetery.

Mrs. Turpin is survived by a son, J. B. Turpin, of St. Louis, Mo., and a daughter, Mrs. Jesse Rue, of Louisville.

ANDERSON

Miss Martha Anderson, a native of Mercer county, died at 12:20 o'clock Sunday morning, April 5, 1936, at her home on the Georgetown road near Lexington. She was the daughter of Andrew Broadus Alexander and Amelia Alexander, and was a sister of the late Miss Mary H. Anderson, of Lexington, and a niece of the late Ed Alexander, of Harrodsburg. She was born and reared in Mercer county and was graduated from Daughters College, this city.

She was a woman of unusual intellect, a devoted member of the Baptist church and the last member of her immediate family, but leaves a number of cousins including James and Andrew Alexander, Mrs. Artie Veatch, Mrs. Givens Forsythe, Mrs. Garnett Dean, Mrs. Joe Russell, Harrodsburg, S. E. and T. B. Alexander, Lexington, and Mrs. D. R. Lauderback, of Jacksonville, Fla.

The funeral was conducted Tuesday afternoon in Lexington by Rev. W. M. Nevins, with burial in the family lot in the Lexington cemetery. Bearers were Ernest Hillenmeyer, W. M. Fister, Lloyd Jett, J. W. Matherly, W. P. Pemberton and E. H. Doak. Relatives from Harrodsburg attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Alexander, Mrs. Artie Veatch, Mrs. Garnett Dean, Mrs. Givens Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander Jr.

MOORE

Mrs. Bettie Moore, 77 years old, wife of James Moore, died at her home near Cardwell Wednesday night April 8, 1936, the end coming about ten o'clock. She was a native of Mercer county, the daughter of John and Sarah Clark Whittenack, and an estimable woman. Surviving are her husband and three daughters, Mrs. George Pankey, Mercer county; Mrs. Rome Davenport, Arthur, Ill.; Mrs. George Noel, of Mackville; and two sons, B. W. Peavler and Shannon Peavler, Mercer county. She also leaves 25 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. William Moore, of Owensboro. Mrs. Moore was a member of the Presbyterian church.

The funeral will be Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Christian church at Cornishville, conducted by Rev. W. H. Curl, of Harrodsburg, with burial in the church cemetery.

WILLIAMS

Mrs. Emma Symons Williams, 75 years old, wife of Mr. John P. Williams, died at her home on the Perryville road about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 8, 1936. She had been ill since December with heart complications but had seemed to rally in the last few days and more hope was felt for her recovery until shortly before the end when she suffered another attack with her heart. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Symons, and was born September 8, 1858. Her marriage to Mr. Williams was solemnized February 17, 1919, and since that time she has resided in this community where she gained the esteem of everyone who knew her. The funeral was at the residence at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. W. T. Best. She was taken to her former home at Sheridan, Ind. for burial today. Surviving are her husband, Mr. John Price Williams, and a brother, Mr. F. F. Symons, Riverside, California.

DENNEY

Thomas Denney passed away at the home of his brother, U. S. Denney, at Columbus, Indiana, Saturday, April 4, 1936, death coming at 11 o'clock at night from angina pectoris. He was the son of Thomas and Margaret Kelley Denney and was born and reared in Wayne county. He was a retired railroad man. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. C. Roberts, Harrodsburg, Miss Nannie Denney, Columbus, Ind., two brothers, B. F. Denney, Wayne county, and U. S. Denney, Columbus, Ind. Mr. Denney was a member of the Masonic order.

He was brought to Harrodsburg where the funeral was at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. C. Roberts, and Mr. Roberts, on Cane Run avenue, conducted by Rev. G. R. Tomlin, pastor of the Methodist church. Burial was in Spring Hill cemetery. The bearers were S. K. Daugherty, Charles Davis, Judge Charles T. Corn, Joe McTay, R. C. Kennedy and R. E. Currens.

LINCOLN HEN HOUSE
EMPTIED BY THIEVES

Thieves rapidly are emptying the poultry houses of Lincoln county, says a news item from Stanford. One report after another tells of the theft of choice hens. Latest victims and the number of hens lost to thieves are: Mrs. Lillie Eads, 40 hens; Mrs. Carl Vanhook, 52, and Mrs. E. V. Carson, 20.

Those taking the poultry in this section don't want roosters. This was indicated by the thieves who visited Mrs. Ethel Barlew's poultry house near the Lincoln-Casey county line. They took all the hens, beheaded a rooster and left his body.

"HARRODSBURG'S BUSY SPOT"

"Better Mouse Trap" Slogan

Elbert Hubbard said: "If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse trap than his neighbor, though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door." The Roycrofters said Mr. Hubbard had in mind the following lines from Emerson at hand at the time he quoted as above: "If a man has good corn, or wood, or boards, or pigs to sell, or can make better chairs or knives, crucibles, or church organs than anybody else, you will find a broad, hard-beaten road to this house, though it be in the woods."

Stamp Collecting

Stamp collecting is primarily a pleasure, a diversion from the work of the day. To its magic carpet people of all classes have turned in increasing number during the last few years, finding in their albums the open sesame to the distant lands beyond the seas, the passport to world travel while enjoying the comfort of a fireside chair.

Bibles Property of the Crown

In England the Bible and Prayer Book are copyrighted properties of the crown and the only organizations that are permitted to publish them are Oxford and Cambridge universities. Collier's Weekly.

Wants Future Wars Bonus

"Yosemite" Indian Name

California's Yosemite Valley gets its name from the Indian word for grizzly bear, "uzumaiti."

"Hackney Coaches" in London

In 1625, London boasted 20 "hackney coaches" which were kept at inns for hire.

70-FOOT TUMBLE BY LAWRENCEBURG MAN

Joseph Hurst, employee of Littleford Bros., Cincinnati, engaged in erecting a 90-foot smokestack at the Dean and Sherk thread factory at Lawrenceburg, miraculously escaped death or serious injury Tuesday afternoon when he fell a distance of 70 feet and landed on the roof of a shed.

The last section of the stack had been hoisted and Hurst was trying to seat and bolt it when the pole that held the block and tackle snapped. The top section fell, carrying Hurst with it. As he neared the roof he grabbed a guy rope and thus broke the fall.

Fellow workmen picked him out of the wreckage and he was able to walk. Examination showed that he was badly bruised about the arms, legs and face, a large hole was torn in one leg and several teeth were knocked out.

LINCOLN COUNTY RETAINS HEALTH OFFICER

A dispatch from Stanford says: The Lincoln County Fiscal Court today voted an appropriation of $1,200 for the retention of the county health unit in this county for the year beginning July 1. Dr. K. T. Johnstone, Stanford, is head of the Lincoln County Health Department.

Arabs in Africa

The first of the alien peoples to enter Africa and to leave a permanent mark on the continent were the Arabs. Next in order came the Portuguese and the Spaniards, followed by the Dutch and the English. The French were the next to establish themselves, and then came the Belgians, the Italians and the Germans.
