

Mercer County Court.

Commonwealth of Kentucky,

Plaintiff.

--VS-- Affidavit. Lee Lawson,

Lee Lawson

Defendant.

The affiant H. Lester says that he believes and has reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant Lee Lawson, is now unlawfully concealing and unlawfully holding in his possession a lot of Brandy, Liquor and cordials in or about his premises in Mercer County, Kentucky, at Shakertown.

H. Lester

Subscribed and sworn to before me by H. Lester this the 17th, day of August, 1919.

Chas. F. Combs

Examiner Mercer County, Ky.

The Commonwealth of Kentucky;

To the Sheriff of Mercer County:-

You are commanded to search the house now used and occupied by Lee Lawson as a residence, and the outbuildings adjacent thereto, said residence is situated in Mercer County, Kentucky, at Shakertown, and if you find on said premises or in or about said residence or buildings a lot of Brandy, Liquors and cordial you will seize and take possession of the same and deliver them together with this writ as speedily as possible. Witness my hand this the 17th, day of August, 1919.

J. M. Davenport
J. M. Davenport