

MERCER County Court.

Plaintiff,

H. C. Terhune,

vs- PETITION.

T. J. Monroe,

Defendant.

The plaintiff, H. C. Terhune, says that he is a citizen and resident of Mercer County, Kentucky; that the claim in this action against the defendant, T. J. Monroe, for $14.55, is for money due for goods, wares, and merchandise sold and delivered to the defendant at his special instance and request during the years 1929, and he ought to recover thereon the sum of $14.55; and that he believes the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found; that the defendant has no property in this state subject to execution, or not enough thereof to pay plaintiff's demand.

Plaintiff, further, says that the defendant, is indebted to the defendant, T. J. Monroe in a sum unknown to this plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against the defendant T. J. Monroe for the sum of $14.55; for his costs and all proper relief; and that the defendant C. M. O.

and T. P. Railway Company be summoned to answer as garnishee herein.
