

Police Court Harrodsburg

J. L. Green

Plaintiff

-v- Affidavit

John Coker

Defendant

The affiant J. L. Green states that he is not ready for trial of this case at this time due to the absence of the witness Wm. Bottoms who resides near Cornishville in Mercer County and ~~has been issued~~ a summons for him has been issued to Mercer County for him; that he is absent without the consent of this affiant; that said witness will testify and it will be true that he was present at the place of John Coker after the work on the cistern had been commenced and when Green called on Coker to furnish water delivered ~~him~~ at the place of work with which to complete the work; that Coker first refused to furnish the water to complete the work and then within a few minutes after so refusing said to Green that he would have the water there ready for work the following morning;
