

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT

The Miami Rubber Co.

Plff.

vs Petition

Alfred Merrick,

Deft

The Plaintiff, The Miami Rubber Company, states that it is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Ohio ; that during the year 1925 it sold and delivered to the defendant at his special instance and request goods, wares and merchandise, to the amount of $182.75 and which the defendant agreed and promised to pay, but no part of which has ever been paid.

That said account was due thirty days after date and monthly statements thereof were rendered to the defendant. An itemized account of which is filed herewith.

Wherefore it prays judgment for the said sum of $182.75 with interest thereon from thirty days after each sale, and for its cost and for all proper relief.

E.N. Gantier
Atty for Plff.