

7 Kentuckians Held By Japs

Washington, (AP)—The War department Friday announced that the following seven Kentucky men are being held by Japan as prisoners of war:

Pfc. Roy E. Goodpaster, husband of Mrs. Roy E. Goodpaster, Harrodsburg.

Pfc. Lyle C. Harlow, husband of Mrs. Lyle C. Harlow, Burgin.

Pvt. Dexter J. Hollon, son of Curtis Hollon, Mount Sterling.

Pfc. Otha Johnson, son of Mrs. Lola Johnson, 527 South Third street Paducah.

Pfc. Thomas Renick, Jr., son of Mrs. Estelle Renick, Route 1, Bowling Green.

Pfc. Ernest L. Sampson, Jr., son of Ernest L. Sampson, Route 4, Harrodsburg.

Pfc. Major Stevens, son of Mrs. Bert Stevens, Route 2, Morehead.

Hollon POW

Clipped By:

jopolony

Sat, Mar 30, 2019