

Affidavit.

STATE OF KENTUCKY, }
Mercer County, } ss.

The affiant, R. J. Spurr, states that he has reasonable grounds to believe, and that he does believe, that John Handy has committed a public offense and that said offense was committed in Mercer county, Ky., on the 30th, April 1931, in the manner and form as follows, viz: That the said Handy committed the offense of unlawfully fishing in Mercer County, to-wit: Lake Herrington and this without a license to fish for the year 1931.

R. J. Spurr, Affiant.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by John Spurr, the affiant, this 30th day of April, 1931.

R. E. Graves, Examiner Mercer County, Ky.
