

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT

Harrodsburg Implement Co.,

Plaintiff,

v.

Judgment.

Elmer Harlow

Defendant.

This cause coming on for hearing and it appearing that the defendant, Elmer Harmon, has been duly summoned and has failed to answer, it is adjudged that the plaintiff, Harrodsburg Implement Co., recover of said defendant, Elmer Harlow forty nine and 75/100 dollars with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from October 1, 1921, until paid, and its costs herein expended. It is also adjudged that, to secure the payment of the aforesaid judgment, interest and costs the plaintiff has a lien on which was purchased by defendant from plaintiff on January 1st, 1920,

"ONE STEEL WHEEL WAGON AND HOUSE BUILT

It is therefore adjudged that the plaintiff is entitled to enforce said lien by sale of the property aforesaid, and the Sheriff of the county is hereby empowered and directed to take the aforesaid lien-property into his possession and to sell the same, applying the proceeds thereof, first to the payment of this judgment, including interest and costs, and if there be any surplus it shall be paid to the defendant.

Before making said sale said sheriff shall have said property appraised, as provided by law, and he shall advertise the time and terms and place of sale for fifteen days preceding said sale by written or printed posters posted at the Courthouse door and at three other public places in the county. The sale shall be made at the Courthouse door in Harrodsburg, Ky., on a credit of three months, bond with good security to be taken payable to the Sheriff who will report his acts and
