

MERCER QUATERLY COURT.

Robert L.Black,

Plaintiff-

VS.Statement

Silas Divine,

Defendant-

The plaintiff,Robert L.Black,states that the defendant Silas Divine is indebted to him in the sum of $10.06 for goods and merchandise sold and delivered by this plaintiff to the defendant and for which he agree nto pay the above amount.He states that said amount is due and unpaid.

He states that the nature of the claim is as above st out;that it is just,due and owing and that he ought to recover of the defendant the above sum,interest and costs.

He states that said defendant purchased the said goods at the times set out in the account which is filed herewith as a part hereof marked "D.for identity.

The plaintiff states that this is an action for the payment of money due upon contract and that the defendant has no property in this State subject to execution and not enough therof to satisfy the plaintiff's demand and the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgement or a return of no prperty found.B

Wherefore the plaintiff prays for judgement against the defendant in the sum of $10.06 for his costs for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant and all proper relief.
