promise to pay to the order of J. P. Speaks

One Hundred & Thirty

Dollars

Negotiable and payable at the MERCER NATIONAL BANK, HARRODSBURG, KY., value received, with interest at Eight per cent per annum from date maturity until paid, and we, the drawers and endorsers, severally waive presentment for payment, protest or notice of protest.

Samuel F. Britton

No.

Due

F. Britton, is indebted to him in the sum of $130.00 as is evidenced by his certain promissory note for said amount, dated April 8th, 1911, by which he agreed to pay to this Plaintiff twelve months after date $130.00 with six per cent interest from date until paid, which note was executed for value received.

He states that said note is past due and no part of same has been paid. Said note is filed herewith as a part hereof, marked "A" for identity.

The Plaintiff states that the nature of this claim is as above set out; that it is just, due and owing and that he ought to recover of the defendant the sum of $130.00, with six per cent interest from April 8th, 1911.

He states that this is an action for the recovery of money and that the defendant is about to sell, convey and otherwise dispose of his property for the purpose of cheating, hindering and delaying his creditors and this plaintiff.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant in the sum of $130.00, with 6% interest from April 8th, 1911 for a general order of attachment against his property. He prays for his costs and all proper relief.
