

John C Horn:

Notice.

John C Horn,

This is notice that your part of the division fence between your land and the land of the undersigned ~~XXXXXXXX~~ Farris Jones is wholly out of repair, and that your cattle and hogs are trespassing over the same, to the great damage of the undersigned; and this is notice that if you do not within a reasonable time after the receipt of this notice, so repair your fence as to make a lawful fence out of it, the undersigned will make the repairs and sue you for the cost thereof, and for all damage he has sustained by the trespass of your cattle and arrest a lien thereon for all damage done.

This March 21st 1931

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~
Farris Jones.
