

In Re Estate of John Brewer:

To Charles H Smith and other devisees under the will of H C Smith.

- N O T I C E -

The notice handed to me by Charles H Smith and signed R W Keenon, purporting to be the attorney for the heirs of H C Smith deceased and Ida Brewer deceased, shows no evidence of any claim to any property owned by John Brewer at his death, nor does the will of H C Smith, nor the will of Ida Brewer, justify any claim in any one to any property devised to Ida Brewer or by her to John Brewer.

If you have any claim to any property owned by John Brwer at his death, you must forthwith give a claimants bond for such property as you designate as belonging to you, and your claim will be considered; otherwise, the property appraised as the property of John Brewer will be turned over to his widow as directed by his will.

This April 6th 1931.

Charles Edwards
Executor under the will of John Brewer.
