-vs- Affidavit and Statement.

C. J. Roney,

Deft

The affiant J W Sams states that the Deft C J Roney is indebted to him in the sum of $45.00 for professional medical services rendered to the said Roney at his special instance and request and for which he agreed and promised to pay the Plff the sum of $45. which is reasonable and no part of which has ever been paid. That said claim is just and that the Plff ought to recover thereon the said sum of $45. and the cost of this action. He says that the Deft has no property in this State subject to execution and that he has not enough property to satisfy the Plff's claim and the claim of Deft's creditors and that the collection of his claim will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and a return of no property found. He files said account and prays judgment against the Deft for the said sum with interest thereon from this date and for his cost and for all proper relief; and prays for a general order of attachment and garnishee against the Defendant.
