✓ Frank Simpson, Hubert Webster, ✓

✓ Willie Holman, & Redman Moore-

Dft's-

The plaintiff, Ben Lancaster, states that he is the owner of a house and lot in Oregon, Mercer County, Ky.; the the defendants, Grover Broyce, Homer Beatley, Frank Simpson, Hubert Webster, and Redmon Moore, wilfully and maliciously damaged said ^{plaintiff} ~~property~~ in the sum of $75.00 by cutting and removing posts and injuring grapevines and flowers and trespassing on and walking over the yard and ^{of said property} ~~premises~~; that said damage was malicious and wilfull and made after a statement to plaintiff that they were going to do it and after a protest from the plaintiff against the doing of said damage. He says that said damages are both compensatory and exemplary and that he ought to recover therefor the sum of $75.00. Wherefore plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendants collectively and individually for the amount of $75.00 and all the costs of this action. He prays for all the relief to which he is or may appear to be entitled-
