

Having levied the attached distress warrant of W. R. Kyle's Trustee against I. L. McGinnis as shown in the foregoing levy, I had said property appraised by J. P. Leonard Wm. Bailey Sr and J. E. Henderson three disinterested housekeepers of Mercer County Ky, and their appraisement thereof is filed as a part hereof marked #1; I then set aside to I. L. McGinnis as a housekeeper exemptions as allowed by law as shown in the attached statement thereof marked #2.

I then advertised for sale said property by inserting an advertisement thereof containing a general description of the property to be sold, the time, place and terms of sale and amount to be raised in a newspaper published in Harrodsburg, Ky for three consecutive weekly issues thereof next preceding Dec. 3, 1921 and also by posting a similar notice at three public places in the vicinity of the property to be sold for 15 days next preceding the date of sale, a copy of said advertisement is filed as a part hereof marked #3.

The amount of the rent due under said distress warrant as of said Dec. 3, 1921 was;-

First amount of rent	$650.00
Interest to Dec. 3, 1921	36.50
2nd amount of rent	1442.00
Interest to Dec. 3, 1921	36.55
Appraisers	4.50
Advertisement Herald	10.00
J.W.Davenport Co. Judge costs	5.00
Sheriff's Commission	73.00
