

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Cecil Kelly

Plaintiff

-v- Statement

J. H. Sea

Defendant.

The Plaintiff states that at the Jan term of the Mercer Circuit Court 1916 he recovered in the Mercer Circuit Court a judgment against J. H. Sea for $10.92 with interest from that date and $ 9.80 costs; that the defendant is non-resident of the State of Kentucky and is now absent therefrom; that he lives somewhere in Illinois but his exact residence is unknown to this plaintiff; that he has had an execution issued from said Mercer Circuit Court to Mercer County and same has been returned no property found, and said sum is still unpaid.

Wherefore he prays an order of attachment and garnishees against the defendant and for costs and all proper relief.
