Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you get what you want.

HOW U. S. CHAINS RADIOCAST NEWS OF KING'S PASSING

Announcement of the passing of King George V of England at 6:55 p. m. eastern standard time, Monday, Jan. 20, 1936, found the radio networks in the United States ready to handle speedily the various tributes to His Majesty which followed in rapid succession.

Actual announcement of the news flash from Sandringham House reached American networks at 7 p. m. Just as some of the popular network programs were about to go on the air, immediately following these programs at 7:15 the National Broadcasting Company linked with London and the best of muffled drums and chimes were heard in Great Britain's first tributes to her departed monarch.

The National Broadcasting Company followed this London transmission with a short program of concert music of solemn character while an announcer gave a short resume of the King's reign.

Fittingly enough it fell to Boake Carter, an English news commentator on American networks, to deliver the first spoken obituary to the King.

NEW KING WEIGHS 125

King Edward VIII bellies in appearance his age of 41 and looks much younger. He is 5 feet 6 inches tall and weighs about 125 pounds. He has youthful features, with a high, almost florid complexion. His hair is flaxen, or straw colored, and he has bright blue eyes.

More than 493,000,000 people, scattered about the world over 13,909,782 square miles of British soil, now call Edward VIII King and Emperor. The British Commonwealth of Nations over which he rules—and upon which the sun never sets—comprises possessions on every continent and in every sea. Men of every race and religion are his subjects.

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood, and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.

BRUCE BARTON Says:

Liberals, pain in neck
All my life I have been hoping to meet some one who would give a satisfactory definition of a "liberal." I read regularly the two most influential "liberal" magazines in this country, and in every issue they tell me everything that has been done wrong that week, both at home and abroad.

Far from "liberal" in their characterization of those of whom they happen to disapprove, they make very clear all the things they are against, but I have been trying for years to find out what they are for. What sort of social set-up do they think would work? Aside from venting their jealousy and wrath on all who have happened to get along in the world, what other program do they have? By what rule or circumstance do people happen to get themselves classified as "liberal" or "reactionary"?

A certain famous Senator, whose gymnastics I have watched for thirty years, has been on all sides of most questions except those which involve votes in his home state. On those questions—silver juggling, potato control, Townsend Plan, or whatever, you always know where to find him. Yet he is a "statesman" and a great "liberal."

I sometimes wonder if professional liberalism is so much a matter of thought as of torpid livers and unfortunate financial experience. People whose livers are active, and whose affairs progress, believe in the country and want to see it go ahead.

This is an exaggeration, of course; not a fair statement. But the mental smoothness of professional "liberals" has long given me a pain. I wish I knew why they are, what they want, and what evidence they have that things would be better if they were given what they want.

UNIFORM STANDARDS URGED FOR U. S. SCHOOLS

A proposal to co-ordinate educational policies in the United States and set uniform standards for all types of schools was discussed Jan. 19 at a meeting of the educational policies commission of the National Education Association.

An appraisal of the purposes of the educational system in a democracy with relationship of the schools to the public will be made, officers said, before the commission holds its next meeting in May. A. J. Stoddard, superintendent of schools in Providence, R. I., was elected chairman of the commission and William J. Carr, of Leland Stanford University, secretary.

ONE YAP FOR EACH TAX FEATHER YANKED

"In another column," the Cynthia Democrat says, "is published the total revenues for Kentucky for the year ending 1935. The gross sales tax comes off and a bill to cut real estate taxes to one-fifth. Just how much the economies that Governor Chandler is making will reduce the State's needs is problematical. It can be safely stated that $10,000,000 will be required to maintain an adequate school per capita. The quiet is going to be disturbed when the geese are driven in for the plucking because we understand there is no place where a tax feather can be yanked without a yap."

100 PUPILS MAROONED AT SCHOOL FOR NIGHT

One hundred students and the teachers at the Connersville School in Harrison county spent the night, Wednesday of last week in the school building, as a large corps of men endeavored to clear the roads to their homes. A cafeteria in the school furnished food.

Pity often not wanted
A cultivated young woman who holds a responsible business position in New York is a member of one of the old, old families. Her two sisters are Social Registerites in a conservative Eastern city, and spend much time shaking their heads and pitying their younger sister. "Poor child," they murmur. "She must be at the office every morning at nine. Sometimes the company sends her out on long trips. She travels alone in trains; she even flies. We urge her to come back and live with us, but she is so stubborn that she can't bear to admit she had made a mistake."

On her side, the young lady says: "I have a thrilling time, but my poor sisters, what a dull life they lead—bridge and luncheons and more bridge and dinners and symphony. It would drive me crazy I pity them."

This land of ours is full of city people pitying country dwellers; country people pitying the hemmed-in residents of the city; bachelors pitying the fathers of big families, and fathers wondering how bachelors can think that they get anything out of life at all.

A rich old manufacturer went to pay a last call on the nightwatchman of his factory. The two had started as boys on the bench together but while the one grew rich the other loved liquor and irresponsibility too well. The rich man cleared his throat to utter a few words of condolence. The dying man raised a warning hand: "None of your sympathy," he cried. "You mean all right, but I don't need it. I've had a whole lot more fun out of living than you ever will have."

Pity that expresses itself in helpful action is a noble thing. But too much so-called pity is nothing but an emotional cocktail wherewith a somewhat complacent individual drinks a toast to what he fancies is his own superior judgment or taste!

NOT AN ACCIDENT

An Arizona cowboy applied at a navy recruiting station for enlistment, says the Air Station News.

"Ever been sick?" asked the recruiting officer.

"Nope!" answered the cowpuncher.

"Ever had any accidents?" queried the officer.

"Not a one," returned the would-be sailor.

"Then what caused that scar on your hand?" demanded the officer.

"Rattlesnake bit me," laconically answered the cowboy.

"And you don't call that an accident?"

"Nope! The son-of-a-gun did it a-purpose."

GIANT OYSTERS

Relief workers at Paris, Texas, quarrying rock for roads and other construction projects, dig up giant oysters quite often. One fossil oyster was 20 inches, long ten inches wide and four inches thick. Even Diamond Jim Brady would have a job putting away a dozen of these on the half-shell.

SHELBY COUNTY DEATH TOLL

(The Shelby News)

In 1935 a total of eleven persons were killed in Shelby County as a result of automobile accidents, almost double the figure of the preceding year.

With but twenty-two days of 1936 gone by, the death toll stands at two and bids fair to pass the 1935 figure in great style.

It will be interesting and instructive to watch the "two" change to "three" and on to "four" as the year progresses. If the past does foretell the future, six or more persons will be killed in Shelby County by July 1 as a result of automobile accidents. More than thirty-five persons will be injured and maimed. The property damage cannot be estimated.

Edsel Ford's large gifts to charity will be handled hereafter by a corporation known as the Ford Foundation, Clifford B. Longley, attorney for the Ford Motor Company, said this week.

Mr. Ford could not be reached at once for a statement. He has been for years extremely reticent about his gifts which include a contribution of $100,000 or more annually to the Detroit community chest fund, but they are known to be large.

5 p.m. is a test of how you FEEL

"How do I feel.... Rotten! why do you ask?"

"Because, you are not yourself!"

It is all so simple, too! That tired, run-down, exhausted feeling quite often is due to lack of a sufficiency of those precious red-blood-cells. Just build up these oxygen-carrying cells and the whole body takes on new life... food is really turned into energy and strength... you can't help but feel and look better. S.S.S. Tonic restores deficient red-blood-cells... it also improves the appetite and digestion. It has been the nation's standby for over 100 years... and unless your case is exceptional it should help you, too. Insist on S.S.S. Tonic in the blood-red cellophane-wrapped package. The big 20-oz. size is sufficient for two weeks' treatment... it's more economical.

S.S.S. TONIC Makes you feel like yourself again

Time Lost is Money Lost

It costs money to be sick. You see it directly if your pay envelope is short. You lose out on some important work if you live on a farm or if you are one of the few who are not docked for lost time. You can't afford to show up on the job unless you are feeling fit. The boss wants results—not excuses.

How many times do Gas on Stomach, Headache, Sour Stomach, "That Tired Feeling," "That Morning After" Feeling, Neuralgia, Rheumatic, Sciatic, Muscular or Periodic Pains keep you at home or interfere with your doing a full day's work?

All these troubles are caused or made worse by too much acid in your body. To correct this condition take

ALKA-SELTZER

Alka-Seltzer is pleasant to take, harmless, non-laxative.

Why don't you try it? Get a drink at your drug store soda fountain for a nickel. Buy a package for home use.
