News of Modern Women

Times are better so far as jobs for women are concerned. Graduates of the 1934 class of the New Jersey College for Women, according to Miss Fredericka Belknap, enjoyed a more prosperous first year out than the classes which had preceded them for several years. Only 10% who desired employment were still unemployed in May, 1935. A census is now being taken of the class of 1935.

The Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor will be fifty years old on October-28 of this year. The 300 foot statue was a gift of the citizens of France to the United States and was paid for by popular subscription. Auguste Bartholdi, the sculptor, portrayed liberty in the form of a woman who had just secured her freedom.

Farm women in Pennsylvania are being helped to market their products by Mrs. Howard Lewis of Philadelphia, president of the National Farm and Garden Society.

There are many trained nurses and women physicians in Mexico who are being urged by the public health department to establish themselves in some of the 486 towns of more than 5,000 inhabitants which have no medical practitioners or nurses.

In Ridgefield Park, N. J., Mrs. Hannah Cuthbertson is weaving Chinese rugs in the Chinese method and on a Chinese loom. She worked for five years as a designer for a rug factory in Peiping. Recently she exhibited at the Roerich Museum, New York.

Olga Petrova, former actress-playwright who commutes from Europe to see her husband, Dr. John D. Stewart of New York, owns a forty-acre farm near Cannes, France, where she raises Siamese cats. When she was in this country during the Christmas holidays she bought them a supply of rubber boots. Thus, they don't scratch the furniture when taken to friends' homes.

WOOL BRIDAL ATTIRE NEW

Wool manufacturers are presenting all-wool wedding costumes for a bride and her bridesmaids. The wedding dresses, it was explained, are made from a sheer wool cloth called Mousseline de laine. They are designed after the costumes of the wives of noblemen of the Middle Ages.

BEAUTY INDUSTRY IS FIFTH LARGEST IN U. S.

American women in their desire to improve on nature are spending from $750,000 to $1,000,000 a day on cosmetics and in beauty shops, beautician authorities estimate.

The number of beauty shops has been increasing continuously, said Charles J. Kuttill, publisher of a beauty trade magazine (Modern Beauty Shop) and he estimated the present total as 65,000, exclusive of one-operator shops in homes. He ranked the beauty industry as the fifth largest in the United States, outranked only by steel, automobiles, manufacturing and food.

SNOW NO HINDRANCE TO STORK IN BOURBON HOME

A baby and mother were reported "doing fine" by a Paris doctor who arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Bryant, of Clintonville, Bourbon county, Saturday. The doctor was two days late.

The doctor received a call from the Bryant home Thursday night, but could not get to the home because of the impassable road. Snow did not deter the stork, however, and he arrived about 11 o'clock Thursday night. The doctor managed to get to the home Saturday. "Both are doing fine," he reported.

GIRLS OF U. S. GIVE STUDENTS BIG THRILL

It took only two words this week for thirty-six students from South Africa to answer an eight-word question by their professor.

"What in this country has impressed you most?" asked S. N. Hoffenberg, of Portland, Oregon, after leading the party from the mining engineer school at the University of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, on a tour of the Northwest.

And the group, which will sail from New York for England, February 14, chorused: "The girls."

January is the month to save on fine, personal printed stationery. The Herald is offering during January RY-TEX DECKLE EDGE VELLUM stationery in DOUBLE the usual quantity (100 sheets and 100 envelopes)—with your Name and Address or Monogram for $1.00 a box. See samples and place your order at once for one or more boxes of this beautiful Deckle Edge printed paper.

GOURD NOVELTIES

Because the curious shapes of gourds interested an unemployed girl, she tried her hand at making the gourd useful and more attractive. Candlesticks, porch pockets for trailing ivy, water jugs and matching goblets, workbaskets, trays, etc., came into being in her gourd workshop. For many months she filled orders for the gourd novelties, and the sale of them provided pocket money during the intermission between jobs.

SWANK GARBAGE

"Anne Mae," said the mistress of the house, finally giving way to curiosity, I noticed you have been taking our empty grapefruit hulls home with you. What do you do with them?" The negro maid looked up at her mistress with a sheepish grin. "Yes-um," she admitted, "I've been carrying 'em home. I think they make my garbage look so stylish." "The Country Gentleman."

Social and Personal

"Boots and Saddle" Girl

SAN FRANCISCO... Miss Anne Anderson (above), aunt of Helen Wills Moody, tennis star, is longing for her boots and saddle. She is here from her cattle ranch at the headwaters of Mad River where she rides the range, with six shepard dogs as companions, 10 months each year. "Few women are fitted to be in the cattle business," she says.

PINE MOUNTAIN GETTING READY FOR 1936 FESTIVAL

Remodeling of the stage and bridges at the festival grounds in Pine Ridge Mountain State Park near Pineville was begun this week under plans drawn by G. Herbert Barker, the park landscape architect. The stages will be changed and bridges will be built at each end. A large pool will be placed in front of the stage. The grounds are being put in shape for the 1936 festival which has tentatively been set for May 29 and 30.

STANDARD STRAPS IN SCHOOL DISCIPLINE

Disciplinarians the world over took heart last week from the action of the school board of Edmonton, Alberta. Concluding a discussion of unruly pupils, the board decreed that henceforth they shall be whipped with straps of a standard size. For pupils in Grade 6 or higher the strap shall be 16 to 19 inches long, 2 to 2½ inches wide, 1-8 to 1-4 thick. For smaller bottoms, smaller straps.

NEW DEVICE WILL DREDGE STOMACH

Surgeons may go "fishing" in human stomachs through the device perfected by Dr. Gabriel Tucker, professor of brochoscopy of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School. So if you swallow your false teeth, an open safety pin or something equally dangerous, Dr. Tucker's new "tackle" is ready to be lowered into your stomach and start dredging operations.

Sweating of the palms of the hands is caused by emotional worries and disturbances, according to Chester W. Darrow, prominent psychologist.

THE MOTORIST'S PRAYER

Grant me a ready hand, a watchful eye
That none may suffer hurt when I pass by.
Thou givest life—I pray no act of mine
May take away or mar that gift of Thine.
Shield those, dear Lord, who bear me company,
From fools, and fire, and all calamity.
Teach me to use my car for others' need,
Nor miss, through lack of wit or love of speed,
The beauties of Thy world—That thus I may,
With joy and courtesy, go on my way.
