

Mercer Quarterly Court

J. T. Ingram

Plaintiff

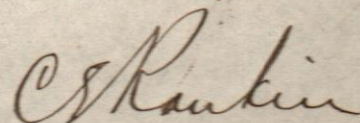

-v- Petition

R. W. Boston

Defendant.

The Plaintiff, J. T. Ingram, states that at the special instance and request of the defendant R. W. Boston he sold to him and furnished to him, automobile supplies, accessories and equipment to the extent that after all credits thereon there is still justly due to him the sum of $127.93, all as shown in the annexed account; that said sum is past due and unpaid.

Wherefore he prays judgment for $127.93 with interest costs and all proper relief.

Attorney for the Plaintiff