Dear Sir:-

We have received advice from Mr. James P. Spilman, our Special Agent at Harrodsburg, advising that policy #1865,323 issued on your life with register date of November 14th, 1913, policy being on the 20 Payment Life, annual dividend plan with disability clause, premium $30.02, had not been received by you, it apparently having been lost while in transit through the mails, and I am pleased to advise that our records show that premium under policy #1865,323 on your life has been paid and that the policy is in full force and effect from November 14th last. Just in this connection, you are being protected under this policy irrespective of whether the contract is in your possession or not, and in order to secure a duplicate of the policy it is only necessary that the Society be
