

Mercer Quarterly Court

J.W. Bland Lumber Company,

Plaintiff

V;
Petition

Marcus Lyons,

Defendant

The Plaintiff, J.W. Bland Lumber Company states that the defendant, Marcus Lyons, is indebted to it in the sum of $26.77 on account; that said amount is for lumber and material furnished to the defendant at his special instance and request; that said amount is now due and wholly unpaid and the demand has been made upon defendant he has failed and refused to pay said account or any part of the same.

Wherefore, etc.

Plaintiff says that this is an action for money due upon a contract to pay for the value of materials and supplies furnished defendant at his instance and request; that said claim is just; that it believes it ought to recover thereon the said sum of $26.77, amount of the claim; that the defendant has no property in this state subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy the plaintiff's demand and the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.

Premises considered, plaintiff prays judgment against defendant for the sum of $26.77; for costs of this action and for a general order of attachment of plaintiff's
