Plaintiff states that on August 9, 1921 the defendant Sampson executed and delivered to the defendant Currens his promissory note by the terms of which he agreed and promised to pay him six months thereafter the sum of $100 with interest from maturity; that said note was before maturity for value sold and transferred to this plaintiff who now owns the same; that no part of said note has been paid although it is long past due and it is filed herewith as a part hereof; that the defendant C. P. Currens by his written endorsement on the back of said note ~~six~~ transferred said note to this plaintiff as stated, for value and before maturity.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment for $100 with 6% interest from Feby 9, 1922 and costs and all proper relief
