

made a part hereof by such reference for any and all purposes whatsoever, and is marked "Exhibit A," for the purpose of identification; and they state that no part of the amount of said judgment with interest, nor any costs of the said action has ever been paid.

The plaintiffs state that they are informed and believe, and so state and charge the same to be true, that the said defendant, John L. Stratton, has raised upon the farm of the defendant, George Cheatham, in the season of 1923, a crop of about _____ acres of tobacco, and that the same is now in Mercer County, and that the said defendant, John L. Stratton, is entitled to an undivided one-half interest in said tobacco, or to the proceeds thereof, subject to any lien of the said defendant, George Cheatham, thereon for money or supplies furnished to the said defendant, Stratton, to enable him to raise the said tobacco, as allowed by the statute in such cases provided; but that they are not informed whether or not the said crop of tobacco is polled with the defendant, Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, either in the name of the said defendant, John L. Stratton or the name of George Cheatham, as landlord of the said defendant, John L. Stratton.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiffs pray for a general order of attachment herein against the property of the said defendant, John L. Stratton, including garnishments, and including the said defendants, George Cheatham and the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association; that the said defendant, John L. Stratton, be required to answer herein and discover any money, choses in action, legal or equitable interests or other property, owned by him or in which he has an interest, and that so much of any property so disclosed as may be necessary be subjected to the payment of plaintiffs' debt, with interest and costs, and that the said defendants, George Cheatham and Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, be required to answer herein and disclose any property or other thing of value of the said defendant, John L. Stratton, held by them, or either of them. They pray for all relief to which it may appear that they are entitled.
