

C. E. HENKIN atty

and the enforcement of said lien.

Wherefore it prays judgment for its debt interest and costs and costs.

same enforced by sale of sufficient property to pay said note interest reason being that it has a lien on said property and is entitled to have and the plaintiff of same is filed herewith as a part thereof: that by old called BLACK, which mortgage was duly acknowledged and recorded, one called J. Lewis old, called WHITE, one piece of land com 2 acres executed to it a mortgage on one piece of land called the piece of land that to secure said note the defendant on Nov. 5, 1904 he has paid only $10.00 Nov. 5, 1914, and $2 and 1/2 1912.

The sum of $28.40 with interest from Jan 1, 1912 until paid and on which and transferred to him by the plaintiff note copy of which is attached plaintiff, a Kentucky corporation, states that the defend-

Geo. Patton

Defendant.

-A- Plaintiff

The Geo. Patton Co

Plaintiff

Merced Superior Court