

Gentlemen of the jury : -

You are instructed to find for the plaintiff, the costs of this suit, ^{and} such damages if, any new sustained, not exceeding $40.00, if you believe that defendant knowing that the saw in question belonged to the plaintiff or ^{the} has reasonable grounds to believe that he was the owner of same, and notwithstanding this knowledge he took possession of and held said saw.

We the jury find for the plaintiff the cost of the suit and $ damages $120.00

D. M. Johnson
Attorney