

Deft admits that he bought a waggon of Plff for the sum of $12⁰⁰ and that he now owes for same -

Deft for further answer states that the Plff is indebted to this Deft for work and labour done in hauling tobacco for 9 days at $1.50 per day and 2 1/2 days hauling same at one dollar per day totaling the sum of $16⁰⁰ which he pleads and relies upon as a set off + Counter Claim to this action.

He states that he has never refused or denied Plff the sum herein admitted and has sought on several occasions to have settlement with Plff of the matters between them and to pay over to him the difference that is justly due and has never denied him payment for same. He further states that he deposited the Check for the purchase price of the tobacco and has never used or appropriated ~~a cent~~ any part of same contending at all time for a settlement of their partnership and accounts wherein above
