Dedication

As an expression of appreciation felt by the Seniors of the McAfee High School, this Year Book, is respectfully dedicated to our parents and teachers, who have so faithfully guided us thus far.

Without the help of our parents we could have done nothing. The home life and guidance they have given us has helped us to attain the goal we have worked for the last twelve years.

Our teachers have encouraged us and helped us to get the most out of school. They have always been kind and considerate even though we have been mischievous at times.

Their never failing patience and endurance have guided us along the right lines of thought and action.

To teachers and parents we wish to express deep appreciation for all you have done for us.

Again we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. May you continue in the good work you are now doing.

In Memorium

We wish to dedicate this page to Miss Josephine Thompson, who departed this life November 17, 1949.

As a teacher she was patient, kind, considerate and ever willing to give of her time and energy to help her students. She was always cheerful and willing to do for others.

She was a leader in her church and community. Her memory will ever linger in the minds of boys and girls who learned the better things of life through her leadership.

It can truthfully be said of her; "Well done thou good and faithful servant".

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It was on September 9, 1946, that 16 "green" freshmen entered McAfee High School. We had all dreamed of the day when we would step into the classroom and be recognized as high school students. We welcomed Mr. H. H. Jones as our new principal and Mr. J. L. Rynerson as our homeroom teacher.

We enjoyed many things that year including the Negro Minstrel which we gave along with the sophomores for the school carnival. We finished our freshmen year by taking a trip to Frankfort and Joyland Park, accompanied by Mr. Jones.

After three months vacation, we the sophomores re-entered school. We were ten in number but after a few months were sorry to lose Bill Carey.

We were very proud of our class since most of our boys made the basketball team and Bonnie Anderson was elected cheerleader.

We finished this year by Mr. and Mrs. Gaunce taking the Sophomore girls to Natural Bridge. The boys went to Fountaine Ferry Park with the Freshmen.

Under the leadership of Miss Mellie Matherly, Principal, Mr. Gaunce, home room teacher, Miss Neva Woods and Mr. Bruce Champion we had a very successful year.

On September 6, 1946 sixteen "green" Freshmen enrolled at Fairview. That year was just about as thrilling as any freshman year could be. We were glad to welcome Rev. H. T. Brown, Miss Irene Dickerson, Miss Mabel Stratton and Mrs. B. V. Stevens as our teachers. The last semester we welcomed Mary Ann Steele from McAfee and Russell Peavler from Cornishville. We lost Viola Warner, who went to Cornishville. This year was ended by having a picnic.

(Cont'd)

On September 13, 1947, seventeen "silly" Sophomores re-entered school at Fairview. Nancy Davenport from Salvisa joined our class.

This year was cramed full of entertainment such as preparing for a play which we never gave, giving parties, having hay rides and sleigh rides.

We had a Debate Club consisting of six members, Jean Sanders, Mary Catherine Taylor, Nancy Davenport, Billy Sanders, Russell Peavler, and Bobbie Poulter. These six and their sponsor, J. W. Stevens, went to Danville, Frankfort, Harrodsburg, and the University of Kentucky.

This year we lost Ernestine Baker, who went to Cornishville.

We ended our Sophomore year by taking a trip to Mammoth Cave.

In September 1948, ten "jolly" Juniors from Fairview boosted the McAfee enrollment to twenty.

Devola Cole decided to stop school but we gained two from Cornishville, namely, Billy Lee Crabtree and Cleo Yates.

This year was bubbling over with excitement such as; "Hobgoblin House", our Junior Play and a picnic.

The Junior year came to an end with the Juniors taking the Seniors to the Cincinnati Zoo.

Now we are "dignified Seniors". We have diminished to sixteen. Some were lost to join the ranks with "cupid".

This Senior year has been very successful and the play entitled "Demon In The Dark" was very successful.

Now we are beginning to understand what people mean when they say "High School days are the happiest days of your life." As we swiftly tread down the journey of life our hearts are saddened by the fact that we must leave McAfee High School.

To our lower classmen and teachers we "bid farewell".

Class Will

We the Class of '50 do hereby give our last will and testament and leave the following items that we use less to the one's who don't have any use for them.

To the freshman boys the Senior boys leave their boisterous ways and the Senior girls leave the Freshmen girls their ability to make "B" plus in conduct.

We would like for the sophomores to have the job of mending their books and cleaning their room, that we mutilated during government class.

To the Juniors we leave all the Senior privileges hoping they have as much fun as we have had.

To Verna Baker and Evelyn Sexton, Bonnie Anderson leaves her ability to keep the same boy friend all during High School, and to Anna Lee McRay she leaves her standing as the pest of the class.

Billy Lee Crabtree leaves his pleasing personality to Walter Watson and his ability to be the most popular boy to Charles McMurry.

To Odell Curtsinger, Nancy Davenport leaves her towering height. Good luck, "shorty". Her love for brown eyes she leaves to Barbara Mattingly.

Roy Freeman leaves his G. I. haircuts to Leroy Howard and to Kennev "Bob" Horn his basketball scoring record. We are depending on you Kenney "Bob".

Lee Ora Gibson leaves her school girl complexion to Helen Price and Virginia Pelly. She also leaves her long fingernail to Christine Ransdell.

To Jean Harley and Katherine Hume, Lorraine Hendren leaves her tact for having a new boy friend every week and her red hair to Jean Cornish.

Lizzie Mae Inman leaves her ability to make high grades to Beulah Watts and her gift of making friends to Jenean Mooney and Bessie Mae Smith.

Mary Margaret Terhune leaves her successful hunt of finding a husband during her Senior year to Nancy Thomas and her willingness to do things to Joyce Merriman.

To Betty Yeaste, Joe Keller leaves his easy way of life and his freckles he leaves to Frank Lynn Wiley.

Russell Peavler leaves his good looks to Edmond Broughton and his fast and reckless driving to Burney McCoun. "Let's not get caught speeding, Burney."

To Bobbie Poulter, Clifford Roney leaves his false teeth but Bobbie please, "don't wear them while playing basketball". He also leaves his mischievous ways to Dorothy Jones and Elizabeth Davis.

Billy Dean Sanders leaves his "neatness" to Lafon Wheeler and his musical talents to Roger Moore. Maybe Roger will be on the Radio soon.

To Juanita Grider, Jean Sanders leaves her alto voice. Jean also leaves her Spanish grades to Jeanetta Watts. "Carry on Juanita and Jeanetta.

Kathleen Springate leaves her quiet ways to Ann Ransdell and Roma Jean Farney. She also leaves her ability to eat nothing and still live to Marlene Browning.

Mary Catherine Taylor leaves her cheer leading to Jane Watts and her shortness to Mildred Green.

To Emma Conder, Earl Ransdell leaves his ability to work business Arithmetic and his courting habits to Johnny Reynolds, Tinsley Phillips and Dale Stumph.
