PRESIDENT'S SECRET SERVICE MEN PEEVED

Are the Secret Service who guard the President peeved at the Canadian police?

When the President is visiting a strange city, it is the practice of the SS-men to walk by his car with one hand on the machine. But during the President's recent visit to Canada, the Canadian police flatly refused to allow them to do this.

"Why not?" demanded the irate SS-men.

"Because," replied the Canadian authorities, "President Roosevelt is the guest of the Canadian government and we will guard him."

CASTOR OIL CLEANS TUFTED LEATHER

To clean tufted leather chairs or sofas, get a soft paint brush and dip it in warm castor oil. The dust can thus be removed easily from all crevices and folds and this treatment makes the leather soft and bright.

Cards have been received here by friends from Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Aseltine, Enosburg Falls, Vermont, announcing the arrival of a son on July 27, 1936, whom they have named Jimmy Reil. Mrs. Aseltine was formerly Miss Dot King, of Springfield.
