

Plaintiff's Exhibit A

Subscribed and sworn to before me by J.W. Elkin, this 14th, 1913.

J. W. Elkin

having answered, he asks to be dismissed.

Lives with his father and is dependent on him for his support. Wherefore condition to work. He states that he has no property of any kind and work until he is physically able, which at the present he is in no the physician for some time and that he was advised not to attempt to from doing any work. He states that he has been under the care of or character and is affected with gall stones which prevent him case that he has been physically unable to do any work of any kind

Ernie Elkin. Pet

Rushmore to Rush

J. W. Elkin

*1913 July 4th
Filed
Paul C. Allen*

The defendant and affiant, J.W. Elkin for response to the Plaintiff's

J.W. Elkin,

vs Response to Rule

Ernie Elkin,

Plaintiff

Meeker Circuit Court