

McCrosky, wife of H.N. McCrosky, one of petitioners, died intestate leaving surviving her, her said husband H.N. McCrosky and as her only children and heirs at law, Henry Thompson McCrosky, who is now 15 years of age, Fay Beckham ^{McCrosky} who is now 12 years of age, and Jeanetta Lillian McCrosky who is now 10 years of age, all being infants and single, and that the said three infants inherited from their said deceased mother.

The petitioners state further that on March 14, 1913, Mrs Eliza Jane Thompson widow of Sam Thompson decd. died intestate, and that the property which was conveyed to her during her life by the children and heirs of Sam Thompson decd., which is herein described, at her death descended in fee simple to the said three children of Sam Thompson to wit; Chas. P. Thompson, Mrs Sue M. Cole, and the children of said Etta McCrosky, she then being dead, subject however, to the rights of courtesy and dower of the consorts; that said Chas. P. Thompson at the death of his said mother became the owner of one third of said real estate, Mrs Sue M. Cole the owner of one third, and the said three children of Etta McCrosky jointly the owner of one third of said real estate, or one ninth thereof each subject, however to rights of courtesy and dower.

Yours petitioners state further that by deed dated May 3, 1913, and recorded in D.B. 86 page 185, of said records, said Sue M. Cole and Sam T Cole her husband for value conveyed unto Chas. P. Thompson, one of petitioners, their one third interest in the said two tracts of land herein described, and that said Chas. P. Thompson is now the owner of a two thirds interest in the said two tracts of land. A copy of said deed above referred to is filed herewith as a part hereof marked exhibit "Y".

Your petitioners state further that on the 13 day of Apr. 1913 H.N. McCrosky was appointed guardian of Henry Thompson McCrosky, of Fay Beckham McCrosky and of Jeanetta Lillian McCrosky and that executed bond as such guardian and that he duly qualified as such guardian and is now acting as guardian for said infants. Copies of his orders of appointment are filed herewith as a part hereof marked "A" & "B".
