

RAMSEY SIGN SERVICE COMPANY,
A CORPORATION

PLAINTIFF

VS: PETITION

G. P. CHINN DEFENDANT

Comes the plaintiff, The Ramsey Sign Service Company, and states that it is a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Kentucky, with power among other things to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with and having its office and principal place of business in the City of Lexington, Kentucky.

Plaintiff further states that the defendant, G. P.

Chinn, is indebted to it in the sum of $62.50 for commercial signs sold and delivered by the plaintiff to the defendant at his special instance and request during the year 1924, and upon his promise to pay the prices charged therefor; that an itemized statement showing the nature of said goods and the prices charged

ed therefor is filed herewith, made a part hereof and marked for identification as "Exhibit A"; that said prices are reasonable and that said debt is long past due and wholly unpaid.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant in the sum of $62.50 with interest thereon at the rate of 6 percent per annum from July 12, 1924 until paid; for its costs herein expended and all proper relief.
