

Mercer Quarterly Court

Coleman & Goddard,

Plaintiffs

VS Petition

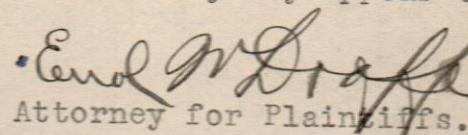

Roy Robinson,

Defendant

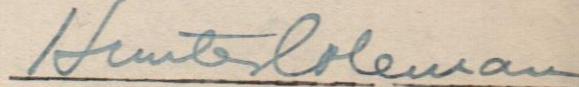

Plaintiffs Coleman & Goddard state that the defendant, Roy Robinson, is indebted to them in the sum of $11.00 on account; that said account is just, due and unpaid and the demand has been made upon defendant he has failed and refused to pay said account or any part of the same.

Plaintiffs state that this is an action upon a contract being a contract to pay money upon demand; that said account is just; that plaintiffs believe they ought to recover the full amount of the account, to wit, $11.00; that defendant has no property in this state subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy and pay said indebtedness and the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.

Wherefore, plaintiffs pray for judgment against defendant in the sum of $11.00 ; for costs of this action and for a general order of attachment of defendant's property including a summons against the garnishee, L.E. Myers Company and pray further for all other relief to which they may appear to be entitled.

Enol W. Daffey
Attorney for Plaintiffs.

Affiant, Hunter Coleman states that the statements of the foregoing petition are true.
