F. Burks and Son, a firm composed of Floyd Burks and Plaintiffs Burdette Burks

vs Petition in Equity

Laura B. Kurtz and Sarah E. Reed Defendants

The plaintiffs, Floyd Burks and Burdette Burks state that they are doing business under the firm name of F. Burks & Son; they state that the defendant, Laura B. Kurtz was formerly Laura B. Sanders; they state that the said Laura Sanders, now Kurtz, on the 8th of May 1912, executed and delivered to this plaintiff her said promissory note by the terms of which one day after date, she promised to pay to the order of these plaintiffs $72.30. They state that said note was executed for value received and same bears interest from date until paid at 6% per annum. They state that said note is past due and no part of same has been paid and it is now filed herewith as a part hereof marked "A" for identity. The plaintiff states that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Kentucky and is now absent therefrom. They state that this is an action for the recovery thereof upon the contract and that the defendant has no property in this State except to execute that the collection of the same will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or returning no property found. The plaintiff states that the nature of this action is as above set out; that it ; that it is just and that the plaintiffs believe that they ought to recover of the defendant, Laura B. Kurtz the sum of $72.30 with 6 % interest thereon from May 18th, 1912 until paid, and cost herein expended; They state that the defendant Sarah E. Reed, as they are informed, is indebted to the said Laura B. Kurtz, the exact amount of which is unknown to them. The plaintiff states that the defendant, Laura B. Kurtz is a non resident of the State of Ky.
