

Harrodsburg Implement Co,

Plff.

vs Petition in Equity

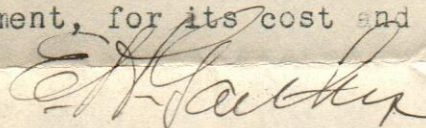

Ben Montgomery,

Deft

The Plaintiff Harrodsburg Implement Company, states that it is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Kentucky : that on March 21st 1921 the defendant, Ben Montgomery by his promissory note, which he executed and delivered to the plaintiff, agreed and promised that on or before the 21st day of Sept 1921 ^{with interest at 6% from date} he would pay to the plaintiff $154.00 /no part of which has ever been paid. Copy of said note is filed herewith.

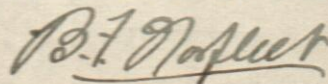

It says that the said claim is just and that the plaintiff ought to recover of the defendant the sum of $154.00 with interest thereon from date : that the claim arose upon a contract as above stated and that the defendant Ben Montgomery has no property in this State subject to execution and not enough to satisfy the plaintiff's demand and the demand of defendant's creditors, and the collection of his demand will be endangered by xxxxx delay in obtaining judgment and a return of no property found.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays judgment against the defendant for the said sum of $154.00 with interest thereon from Mch 21st 1921, for a general order of attachment, for its cost and for all proper relief.

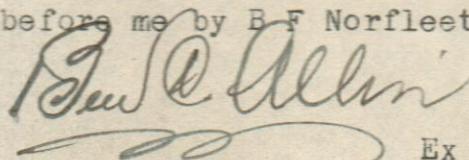

Atty for Plff.

The affiant B F Norflett says he is the general manager of the Plff Harrodsburg Implement Co and that the statements of the foregoing petition are true.
