

Graduates of '35-'36

A Toast To Your Future Success

With the passing of your school years, you have laid the foundation for your future success in life. You have just made a beginning—the road to the top is a long and hard one to climb, but the satisfaction, once you have achieved the goal, is well worth the effort. That you may attain a position in which you will be happy, and loved and respected by your fellowmen is our sincere wish for you.
