

Nannie Salmons:

Notice is hereby given you that your turkeys are damaging my corn crop and that unless you keep same off of my property that I will take legal steps against you and further notice is given you that the two ducks taken up by wife and fed and cared for by her~~z~~ can be taken by you when you pay a reasonable amount for taking care of same and you are further notified to keep off of my premises and cease making threats or I shall proceed to take legal steps against you.

This the 28th, day of October, 1933.

Willard Dine