

The Commonwealth of Kentucky,

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mercer County:

Whereas, Owen Trimble by an inquisition taken before the undersigned justice of the peace of said county has been found guilty of a forcible detainer in Burgin in said county, to the injury of Oma Hampton. You are therefore, in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, commanded, that, with the power of the county, if necessary, you put the plaintiff Oma Hampton in the possession of said premises; and make due return within two days to me how you have executed this warrant.

Given under my hand, this eighth day of March, 1933.

John P. McAdams

Judge of Mercer County Court
