

Mercer Quarterly Court.

W. S. Alford,

Plaintiff.

--VS-- Affidavit &c, $80.00.

W. T. Wells,

Defendant.

The affiant W.S.Alford says that by the terms of a contract entered into between him and the defendant W.T.Wells, for the rent of a house and lot at the intersection of Perryville and Maxville Streets in Harrodsburg, Kentucky, the defendant promised and agreed to pay plaintiff the sum of $40.00 per month from the 1st, to the 10th, day of each month; he says that the defendant is now in arrears to him for rent under said contract and that on the 10th, day of November, 1921; he will be justly and truly indbted to him in the sum of $80.00 for the rent of the above named property and that he believes and has reasonable grounds to believe that unless an attachment be issued against the property of said defendant that he will loose his rent.

W. S. Alford

Subscribed and sworn to before me by W.S.Alford, this the 5th, day of November, 1921.
