

17 Kentuckians Held Prisoners Of War By Japan

Washington (AP)—The War Department Wednesday made public the names of seventeen Kentucky soldiers held as prisoners of war by Japan.

Listed were:

Sgt. John D. Brown, brother of Miss Ann Brown, Lewisport.

First Sgt. Dennis Burns, son of Al Burns, Lexington.

First Lieut. George C. Calas, son of Charles P. Calas, Louisville.

Sgt. Nobel B. Collins, son of Russell Collins, Harlan.

Tech. Sgt. Percy E. Hall nephew of Mrs. Manie Wisehart, Louisville.

Second Lieut. Woodrow Holbrook, son of M. J. Holbrook, Whitesville.

Second Lieut. Jaques Paul Jamal, son of Mrs. Emma Marie Jamal, Louisville.

Tech. Sgt. Sylvester G. Lane, husband of Mrs. Elizabeth Lane, Cold Springs.

Lt. Col. James R. Lindsay, Jr., son of Mrs. Eva Miller Lindsay, Louisville.

Staff Sgt. Joe B. Million, son of Charles Million, Harrodsburg.

Capt. Alvin C. Poweleit, husband of Mrs. Loretta Poweleit, Newport.

Pfc. Lawrence Robinson, son of Mrs. Liza Robinson, Wayland.

Pfc. Garrett G. Royalty, husband of Mrs. G. G. Royalty, Crab Orchard.

Tech. Sgt. Marvin St. Clair, son of R. D. St. Clair, Guston.

Sgt. James H. Stidham, brother of Miss Lula McIntoch, Hardshell.

Pfc. Jessie F. Tones, son of Mrs. Lucy Tones, Liberty.

Capt. James R. Tuggle, brother of Fred B. Tuggle, Albany.

Poweleit POW

Clipped By:

jopolony

Thu, Oct 10, 2019