

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT.

S E May,

Plff.

vs Answer

L E Myers Company,

Deft

The defendant, L E Myers Company, for answer to the plaintiff's petition, denies that on the day of Jany 1925 or at any time it entered into a contract with the plaintiff. It denies that by any contract he agreed to furnish or deliver to the said Company any milk. It denies that he did deliver to the Company any milk. It denies that it agreed to return all bottles to the plaintiff, in which milk was to be delivered, and denies that it agreed upon its failure to do so, it would pay for said bottles at 6 1/4 cts per bottle, or any sum, or that it agreed to pay any sum for any bottles. It denies that since the first of Jany 1925 the defendant has received from plaintiff 70 dz bottles, or any bottles, for which it has not accounted. It denies that the plaintiff has made any demand upon the defendant for the return of any bottles or for the payment for any bottles.

Wherefore it prays to be dismissed and for its cost and for all proper relief.
