

John H. King

Ans I will not.

11- Will you be in Kentucky on the 13th day of July.

claimed 24 bottles short.

refused, on account of his first statement, wherein he only we pay him $40. or $50. for the loss of bottles, which we bottles. About two weeks later, he called again asking that claiming a shortage in the amount of five dollars for Company. About one week later he called over the phone company that he could afford to give those bottles to the short 24 bottles, but that he had made enough off of the

"He made no demand and stated to Bill King that he was he said.

lost bottles or any claim that bottles were lost. State what

10- After the contract ended did the plaintiff make any demand for "An average of 100 per day

bottles.

9- During that time do you know how much milk you got, how many

1925

"It began the first of January 1925 and ended April 30th and when did it end.

8- How long did this contract continue, when did it begin

Ans Ways was the only one to my knowledge.